GENEVA-ON-THE-LAKE. OHIO

Everybody at Geneva-on-the-Lake is having lots of fun . . . August is a wonderful month with cool nights under blankets and warm sunny days on the beaches . . . Most popular of all are the motorettes, humming along the main drag. They say Euclid Beach has 300 of them. They're something new and they have gone over with a bang!

At Swanton's

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony De Michele and family of Youngstown are vacationing at Pearl G. Swanton's "Homelike" cottage. Another Youngstown family is Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caddick and family who are spending their second week at Mrs. Swanton's "Lykhome" cottage.

Staying at the Home Sweet Home cottage are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richards of Warren and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hart of Wilkinsburg, Pa. Mrs. I. J. Humphrey and family of Cleveland are at the Homefront cottage and Albert E. Wallisch and family of Pittsburgh, Pa. are at the Backhome cottage. Room guests include Ben Simkins of Youngstown; Anthony Kerveyt of Struthers; Mrs. E. G. Horwath and son of New Kensington, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Dorn Nredura and son of New Castle and Mrs. Rose Saccomouin of New Castle, Pa ..; Genevieve De Luca of Erie, Pa.; Marjorie M. Moritz of Wesleyville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mack of Allisin Park, Pa. From Pittsburgh, Pa. were John Jarvis and John Crowley and Mrs. J. G. Schlender.

Tony Isn't Very Fond of Goats

There are all kinds of people coming to Geneva-on-the-Lake this year with pets but when John Johnson of Pittsburgh, Pa. brought a baby goat along while vacationing at Ford cottages, "Tony," the long-eared hound, rebelled.

Tony sort of rules the roost at Ford cottages and he's generally quite appreciative of all guests because they stay in cottages and have little to do with Tony's living quarters.

But when that blasted goat came, Tony had to give up his dog house and everybody was ignoring him and paying lots of attention to the baby goat.

All the goat did was ba-a-ah as far as Tony could see. Frankly, Tony was a little tired of all the ba-a-ahing, and he didn't see anything to "ooh" and "ah" about just because it drank milk out of a bottle and had a cute little goatee.

Leon Gschwind of 1534 Malasia road, Akron, another guest at the Ford cottages, snapped this pic-

Also on the register were the Misses Gloria Bender and Ann and Mary Jane Connell, and Gloria Van Nostran, all of Cuyahoga Falls.

Johnson is holding his pet in case Tony might decide to gobble the goat up, but as you can see in the picture, Tony is a wee bit afraid to do much of anything.

Johnson got the baby goat in North Kingsville after reading about the goat farm in the "Goat's Journal." Johnson is planning to raise several goats.

Have you ever had any goat's milk? Well, it's good, son, that is, if you like goa't milk!

Mayor Wires President About Beach Erosion Bill

Mayor Murray J. Cook wired President Harry S. Truman this week in behalf of village officials asking that he approve HR2033 which recently passed Congress and has to do with the lake erosion problem.

Mayor Cook was requested to take this action in a telegram sent to him by J. Spencer Smith, president of the American Shore and Beach Preservation association.

Smith suggested that a wire be sent to President Truman immediately asking his approval emphasizing that the measure does not appropriate any funds but is of importance to your community as a companion measure to HR 2032 signed by President Truman July 31, 1945.

The bill provides for a general survey and study to be made of the south shore of Lake Erie and the causes for the erosion which has done so much damage during the last several years.

Wire to President The wire sent by Mayor Cook read as follows:

"Other local officials and myself hope you will approve HR 2033 passed by Congress. Geneva-on-the-Lake is a resort on Lake Erie between Cleveland and Erie, Pa. and is a hub for vacationers from Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania, Youngstown, Warren, Akron and Cleveland, Ohio. Nearly all beach is gone due to erosion and the business and livelihood of this community will go with it. We understand HR 2033 together with HR 2032 PL 176 passed and approved by you is of importance to us and may render us aid in the future on this problem."

The erosion problem was discussed by the council in their regular meeting Monday night and the council expressed the hope that Congress would appropriate money for the preservation of beaches which have narrowed down alarmingly during the last several years.

At Pen'Bryn

Dr. and Mrs. James Osborn and sons of Cleveland and Miss Jucy Jo Atkinson are guests at Pen'Bryn. Also vacationing at the guest house are Mr. and Mrs. James Rickney of Pittsburgh and Miss Isabel Travers and Johanna Schenk of Cleveland.

In the Baldwin cottage are Mr. and Mrs. William Prentice of Geneva. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williams and daughter, Caroline, of Shaker Heights are in the Gardenview cottage.

Vacationing in Pinwydd are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bickerstaff and son of Coriopolis, Pa. In Delwyn are Mr. and Mrs. John Carr and daughter, Sally, and son, Charles, of Cleveland Heights.

The latter three families have been coming together as guests at Pen'Bryn for several years.

Hotel Colonial Guests Miss Ruby Marshall and three friends of Cheswick, Pa. have registered at the Hotel Colonial this week.

Also on the guest list are Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist of McKeesport, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bailes of Welch, W. Va.; Betty Lopes and Betty Thompson of Mr. and Mrs. William Lowery of Warren also were among those vacationing at Eagle Cliff.

At Gaetano's

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cambury of Youngstown were guests of Gaetano's for the week. Other vacationists there included Minnie Totino, Miss Mary Tazorachik, Mrs. Streskey and friend of Springdale, Pa.; Ida Poplaski and friends from Pittsburgh; Marjorie Worthington and party of Oakland, and Mrs. A. Wenfryn and friend, of Carnegie, Pa.

Dr. Al Lucia and Dr. James Giunta of Warren, Pa. are guests of Gaetano's this week. They are both enthusiastic golfers and have been keeping the local course hot with their games.

Kramer Guests

Recent guests at the Kramer cottage were Mr. and Mrs. August C. Azinger of Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Esch of Steubenville spent a week in the East cottage and Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeCandio and friends vacationed at the Kramer lake-front cottage.

L-Rae Guests

Recent guests from Youngstown at the L-Rae Guest House were Helen, Thomas, and Lucille Ceglie; Michael Darko, Frank Fetchet; and Mrs. C. A. Harley and Mrs. Charles Landolt.

Other guests included Donald H. Ebalt and Mr. and Mrs. Seton and family of Pittsburgh; Mary Frances Ryan and Patricia Nimblith of Fremont, W. Va.; Bill Secreto and Sam Steri of Vander-(Continued on page 6) stage of his home town for the first time in over 20 years to perform in a week's engagement of the Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy by Mary Chase, "Harvey."

To Play in Chicago

Mrs. Spies said that the play will be taken to Chicago for the winter season.

"And, believe me, we are all going to see it," Mrs. Spies smiled, and said that the entire family was going to close up the house and see the famous play.

This is the comedy that has achieved the notable record during more than one year in New York of never having one unsold seat for any performance.

While Mrs. Spies was in Toledo, she spent the whole day with her nephew and his mother, being entertained at Toledo's beautiful Hotel Commodore Perry and the swank Sylvania Country Club.

Overseas Service

"Harvey" marks Joe's return to professional assignments after three years in the European and Southwest Pacific war zones. He entertained troops in Alaska, the Aleutians, Africa, Italy, Australia, New Guinea, the Philippines, and in the China-Burma-India theater.

For his entertainment activity, he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal, highest noncombatant citation of the Army.

Likes Baseball

While in Toledo, the comedian appeared at a triple feature baseball program. It was a sort of exchange arrangement with Brown home to help the Toledo Amateur Baseball Federation celebrate its silver anniversary and the Federation helping Joe celebrate his 54th.

Mrs. Spies opened her restaurant early in the season and says she intends to enlarge the place for next year. Already she has established a reputation for her fine home-baked pies and other pastries.

Alvino Rey To Play At The Pier

Alvino Rey, one of the country's "big ten" bandmasters, will take over The Pier ballroom for a one night's performance on Sunday, Aug. 18.

Rey, a Clevelander, has reorganized his orchestra, and is bringing 29 artists including Jo Anne Ryann in his radio and Victor recording ensemble.

The leader's electric guitar playing, his "twin brass" section, and his popular arrangements will be included in the evening's entertainment.

Rey has been visiting the Cedar Point ballroom during the past week.

Water Pressure Deferred

The matter of water pressure was discussed in detail and action was referred to a meeting in September when plans would be drawn up for a new rate ordinance.

The council passed a resolution accepting the amount and rates as determined by the County budget commission. The rate will remain the same as last year-17.700 mills.

Harold Banig was named as special policeman for the golf course by Mayor Cook.

Chamber Elects Five Directors

A. Sylvester Oakley, Albert Gessler, Edwin Koerner, M. J. Westlake, and E. V. Goettel were elected directors by the local Chamber of Commerce to serve for a one-year period, C. E. Jolly. president, announced this week.

Ballots for the five directors were sent out to all members in good standing. The five men received the highest number of votes when the ballots were counted Wednesday night. All members in good standing were listed on the ballots.

Jolly urged all to list their vacancies with the local Chamber of Commerce. "Whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not, we would be glad to have your vacancies listed with us," the chamber head said.

Jolly who gave up his post as supreme monarchos of the Ancient Mystic Order of Samaritans at their annual convention in Columbus recently, has been named secretary for that organization. The national office will be moved from Niagara Falls to Genevaon-the-Lake, Jolly said.

The Strange Case of Mrs. Rose's Pink Dress

Here's the sixty-four dollar question: What happened to Mrs. Edith G. Rose's pink dress? It was hanging on the clothes line at Alta Vista. One of Mrs. Rose's own guests solved the mystery.

The dress was hanging on the line to dry one minute and the next minute it was gone! Mrs. Rose was quite perturbed. Later one of her guests, Mrs. Marjorie Long, returned from shopping in Geneva and handed Mrs. Rose her pink dress. It was spattered with mud but it wasn't torn.

Mrs. Long explained that she and her son, Billie, had backed out from the driveway at Alta Vista and the dress must have caught on the license plate. Anyway, they went gaily into Geneva with the pink dress trailing behind them.

"No one stopped us en route," Mrs. Long smiled, "but when we got to Turner's restaurant, there it was."

Everyone got quite a laugh out of it and the beautiful part of it all was that the dress was not torn and the dirt all washed out and Mrs. Rose still has her pink dress!

Guests registered at Alta Vista this week from Youngstown include the following: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Summers and son, Bing (Mrs. Summers is the daughter of Mrs. Rose); Mildred and Jean Gilboy and Dorothy Weber.

From Pittsburgh were Lorraine and Dorothy Brander; Rose Marie Swallow and Helen Ribizey; John Brady Jack Kittmer, and Robert Gainer; Lillian Heller; Rose Dalesando and sisters, Lillian and Angeline Ross; Robert Reid and Walter Moss; Rose Lipp, Peggie Winkleman, and Pat

Marie Fallon.

Other guests included Viola Bateman of Etna, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Donaldson of Mundhall, Pa. and brother of Mrs. Donaldson, Edwin Keeler; Anna Marie Beringer and Kathleen and Joan Jogan of New Kensington; Helen Powell of Apollo, Pa.; Oscar Sporn of New York; Josephine Butler, Patricia Dyakon, and Ann Kubes of Duquesne, Pa.; William DeGlincy of Ellwood City, Pa.; Kathleen Dixon of Butler, Pa.; Mary Frances Bryan of Fairmont, W. Va.; Paul Fletcher and Ed Eatsey of Windsor; and R. M. Hogg from Cheswick,

Pa. Mr. and Mrs. David Atwater of Massillon were guests at Alta Vista as were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Creal of Navarre, Pa.; Miss Colette and Gaynelle O'Neal and Mrs. R. F. O'Neil and Miss Cassie Coleman, Muse, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wire and Mr. and Mrs. Gale Sprague, of Poland, Suzette has literally been running herself ragged this summer showing people shopping points in Ashtabula, Geneva, and thereabouts, helping them find gifts to take home and mentioning smart beach togs on display notably at Carlisle-Allen's in Ashtabula and Mrs. Lock's Beach shop right at Geneva-on-the-Lake.

Now that summer has reached its climax, Suzette is looking ahead toward fall.

"Summer sun and weather always leaves its mark on your skin," Suze^tte pointed out wisely. She suggests that you recondi^tion your skin for fall by using Doro^thy Gray's Orange Flower lotion (for dry skin) or Texture lo^tion (for normal or oily skin).

By buying now at Carlisle-Allen's, you can get the large $2 size for only $1 plus tax.

While you're shopping in the store's cosmetic department you might check the new "Plus Cleanser" by Helena Rubenstein. It foams and cleanses like a fine soap, yet leaves your skin soft and smooth because it's actually a cream. "Scrub Team" is Helena Rubenstein's Plus Cleanser and handy facial sponge. $1.50 plus tax.

The "Pancho Kit" contains Helena Rubenstein's Plus Cleanser, facial sponge, Apple Blossom Deoderant, Milk-tone Pancake makeup, and lipstick. The case is white canvas with simulated alligator trim. $3.95 plus tax.

Tom-Kon Jewelry Cleaner—a liquid cleanser—complete with brush, cleans every kind of jewelry except plastic. Metals and stones emerge sparkling. For precious or costume jewelry 50c. Carlisle's also have earring racks to hold up to 10 pair of earrings. It keeps your earrings sorted in pairs and allows easy selection. Made of clear plastic in oval or heart shape.

Another interesting item currently on display at Carlisle's is the mystery purse. It is a change purse with a secret pocket for bills and valuable papers. Zipper closing keeps everything safely hidden. It is a washable plastic in red, black, brown and navy. $1 plus tax.

Before leaving the street floor Suzette tells us to check Carlisle's gold belts. Gold belts are defini^tely "in" this fall. They team with your tailored wools, your dressy crepes and some styles are even made for skirts and sweat-

"Pennies from Heaven" is a gold link belt with a lucky penny inset in a heart fob. $5. Dressy gold mesh belts, one inch wide with metal clasp, $3.95. Narrow gold mesh belt_s with tailored gold metal buckle, $2.

Up on the second floor in the lingerie department, Suzette noticed a dozen pastel packets of scented washing powder called "Flora Foam" for care of fine lingerie, hosiery and all delicate fabrics. Tied together with a ribbon and flower, they sell at $1. This is really an excellent gift item.

Van Raalte girdles of power net woven nylon lastex yarn are the right foundation for your fall wardrobe! Pantie girdles come in black or regular girdles in tearose, both with satin front panel and invisagrip garters. In petite, small, medium and large sizes.

Suzett_e stopped in to see Mr. Clark the other day at his gift and shell shop located near the new theater. She was particularly intrigued with the pin and earring set made of tiny shells and

He also showed her a white cameo set with carved flowers, and a brilliant pin and earring set in the form of a parrot.

She liked the handmade dolls and the bracelet made of polished cocoanut shells from Latin America.

 O_n your way into Ashtabula on U. S. Route 20, you'll see a sign reading, The Hollyhock Hill Gift shop. It is owned by Louise Malott who has some of the most original gift items of any we've seen this season.

You'll like the three plastic ivy balls on the plastic chain which sell at $1... the Rome creation stationery, each sheet of which bears a genuine engraving of a scene along the lake front and which sells for 50c and $1 a box ... worry bird banks which come in cartons ready to be mailed back home at $1... and hundreds of other items which you can only appreciate by visiting The Hollyhock Hill Gift shop.

Next Year's Program?

Both big business and little business constantly are working to improve their status in their own competitive fields. Huge sums of money have been spent on research laboratories. Questionaires are sent out. Clerks are hired to go out and discover at first hand just how their product rates in the eyes of the consumer.

The resort business is big business. It is the third largest business in the country with reference to the amount of money spent.

Now that the war is over and the transitional period has about reached its climax, competition is bringing things back to normal. This normalcy is being felt throughout the country. Resort business people are beginning to realize that the boom is over. There is no lack of gasoline. Resorts throughout the vountry are vieing with each other for vacation patronage.

Now is the time, then, for businesses to take stock of themselves. It is time for this resort to look at itself with a critical eye.

The question arises: "What can be done to keep this resort one of the most popular resorts along Lake Erie?"

We have talked with various people here who have been in business over a long period of time. Geneva-on-the-Lake has been catering to vacationists for over 75 years. During the last decade it has grown by leaps and bounds. There is reason to believe that this resort is approaching a new era of popularity.

But, what degree of prosperity we have during the next several years depends entirely upon the small nucleus of individual property and business owners.

Yes, the individual owner may do well for a period of time by running his own business oblivious to all the other businesses at the resort. He may get along fine by objecting to everything that does not directly benefit himself; but when he gets right down to brass tacks, how successful will he be if the resort loses out in the running?

For vacationists who would like to attend the church of their choice while staying at Genevaon-the-Lake, the Geneva churches extend their whole-hearted welcome.

We have heard expressions of what ought to be done from every faction and most of these have been constructive.

These are a few of the thoughts expressed by vacationists and property owners on what should be done for the 1947 season:

1. A definite program for promoting the resort. (This includes more advertising, particularly in sections of Ohio that have not been reached before.)

2. Street lights. (This has been mentioned numerous times but as The Beachcomber brought out in previous articles, the council was unable to get them for this year. They are assured for next year.)

3. The problem of the beaches. (Old Lake Erie washed away a generous portion of the beaches this year and slid in a lot of driftwood during stormy weather last month. We've heard lots of people say the beach cleaners have done a good job this year and others say that they haven't seen the beach cleaners. Looks like that situation could be remedied by a little cooperation between the beach "owners" and the men doing the cleaning.)

4. A program to beautify the resort. (All right, go on and laugh but actually we've heard lots of people say that they would like to see a committee formed to "spruce up" the village a bit. Maybe some sort of a prize for the cottage owner with the nicest landscaping. A few petunias sprinkled here and there and a little sickle job on vacant lots would do a great deal to improve the looks of the resort, so we've heard it said.)

Readers of this editorial will undoubtedly have numerous other things to add to this list. If you get a minute, sit down and drop a letter to the editor, Box 643, Geneva-on-the-Lake, Ohio.
