Flashing

Fourth of July weekend jam-packed with happy vacationers. Tell the transients from all quarters by their lily white faces, give them a couple of dollars and they will look as brown as the beans. Lots of beach parading, bicycling, horseback riding and hayriding at Bill's "T" ranch . . . you'll all be people you know in The West Coast . . . yep, vacationtime is better get those reservations August!

Among the people you'll see at the resort are Mr. and Mrs. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Soland, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent and children spending two weeks in the "Rose of Sharon" cottage on Putnam drive. They are from Youngstown.

Did you know that V. J. Smith's wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stiffler of Geneva and his sisters, Theodora of Geneva and Mignon of Cleveland, and Miss Ruth Tuttle, are all here after an extended trip to the West Coast?

West Coast

Who took the Presidential train from New York earlier this month for San Francisco to attend the National Grocers convention. The trip included Salt Lake City, Yellowstone National Park, a boat trip to Vancouver and too many other famous spots to mention.

George Spies of Maple Heights had as her guests recently G. Donald Spies, his wife, daughter, Joan, and sons, Harold and Roger, formerly of Cleveland City. They are making a new home in South Euclid. Spies reports that they are enjoying their kitchen at Maple Heights and that meals are being prepared by candlelight.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Jolly and children, Billy, Bobby, and Betty of Lakewood are spending two weeks' vacation at the town Manor. He is the son of Jolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Blaugh, president of the Geneva Association, attended the Kiwanis International convention June 30 to July 3. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Blaugh.

Also, "Skipper"

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rowe of Cleveland, "Skipper," of Cleveland and guests for two weeks at the cottages. Also spending two weeks there are Mrs. G. J. Coakley and family of Pittsburgh.

Guests include Robert Decker and family of Steubenville; E. Morris and family and Heilman, all of Cleveland; J. Duff and party of Youngstown; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Diehl and daughter, of Youngstown; Mrs. Duff of Youngstown; and Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan of Youngstown.

"Stardust" Cottage

Paul Greer and family of Youngstown are staying in the Stardust cottage of the Worthington Hotel. Other guests there in-

Council, School Board Strictly "On The Beam"

Through the efforts of the Village council, the local board of education and Lyle T. Merritt, legal advisor, that part of the Cramer bill which would have eliminated this school district and attached the village to the East Geneva school system, was stricken out, it was learned here this week.

Had the bill been passed, the village school taxes would have increased sharply and would have absorbed practically all of the money allocated within the 10 mill limit for general fund purposes. This would have had a drastic effect on the village financial set-up.

So, orchids to the village and school officials for really being on their toes and watching out for the interests of the resort!

Bill Turney's Ranch Is New Attraction

Wal, pardner, hitch a ride on that old time hay wagon and you will be taken to Bill Turney's Diamond "T" ranch for a horseback ride along scenic bridge trails.

Bill's hay wagon is making three trips daily from his ranch on North Meyers road to the resort at 10 a. m., 12:30 p. m. and 3 p. m. You can get on the wagon at the resort, take a ride to the ranch, horseback ride there for an hour and then be brought back to the resort, all at a very moderate cost and lots of fun!

This man Turney is an old hand with "hosses." He's been in the game for 22 years or more. Three years ago he was at Madison for the summer and decided that he wanted to make it an all year round proposition; so, he bought property on the North Meyers road and converted it into a ranch.

Along with saddle horses, Turney has a horse and buggy that he rents out and he'll help you organize a hayride.

Freddie Shaffer and his all-girl dance band will be playing nightly at the Pier, this week.

Include Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fonner of Elm Grove, W. Va.; and family of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Medea Angelo of Hubbard, and Mr. and Mrs. P. Blasquak of Cleveland.

Guests at Breen's

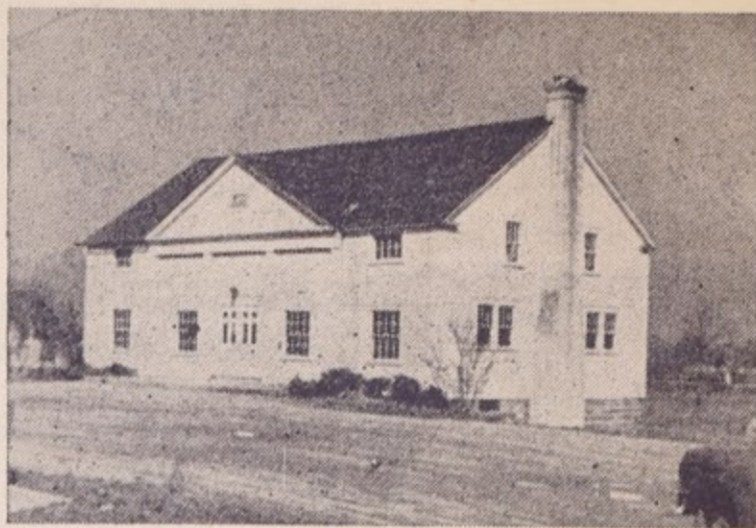

Lots of happy vacationers at Breen's this week include the following from Pittsburgh, Pa.: John Draver, Al Botic, Mrs. Ruth Bittner, Mrs. Mogel, Helen Johnson who is staying for two weeks; J. W. Simon, Howard McDonal, and Charles Bismar.

H. H. Yeager of Altoona, Pa. is vacationing at Breen's. This is his fifth year there. Another vacationist who has been coming for several years is Mary Megla of Youngstown. Also of Youngstown is Marcy Lazor.

From Cleveland are G. L. Cherny, John Look, Joseph Kowale-

Smorgasbord Changes Hands

The Smorgasbord in Geneva changed hands during the winter when it was bought by Stella Smith of Cleveland. It is now known under the name of "The Colonial Restaurant" and already it has made a name for itself through its excellent moderately priced meals.

THE COLONIAL RESTAURANT

Mrs. Smith is maintaining the same lovely atmosphere but is meeting the needs of the people by giving them anything they want from a sandwich and cup of coffee to a full course dinner.

The dining room is open from 11 a. m. until 9 p. m.

Mrs. Smith has been in the restaurant business for 25 years. At one time she was with the Ardizli tea room in Portsmouth and was dietician and food supervisor for the Scioto County Girl Scouts for 11 years. This Scout organization has one of the largest camps in the country.

Mrs. Smith managed the dining room at the Cleveland airport and she said that last Labor Day they served 18,000 persons. "We sold 50,000 hot dogs alone," she laughed.

Along with the Colonial restaurant in Geneva, Mrs. Smith also operates the cafeteria at the Bomber plant in Cleveland where 1500 people are served every day.

Mrs. Smith and her husband have three children, Mrs. Mary Jane Parker, Tommie and David Smith, all of Cleveland.

The Old "Glenullan" Home Converted To Dining Room

(Ed. Note: This issue of THE BEACHCOMBER is largely taken up with interesting places to eat where food is served at its best. If you're hungry don't blame us, just put on your bib and tucker and pick out the place that appeals to you most and eat, brother, eat!)

Mrs. R. R. Rosicker, originally of California and more recently of Cleveland, formerly was a nurse and dietician until she finally gave in to the urge to open a restaurant.

In January of this year she opened the Glen-Ullan dining room on Walnut street, Geneva, taking the name from "Glenullan" as the old colonial home was called when it was owned by A. M. Tyler of Geneva.

It is a pleasant experience to eat in the old mansion with its spacious open stairway. The two flights of stairs are supported by zyk, D. A. Eiben, Helen Jaworski, Mary Bourke, Bob Landis, and Virginia Boing.

Pennsylvania guests include Charles Boker of Penn; Nicholas Morgan, McIntyre; Mrs. Joseph Watson, East Palestine; Mrs. Ida M. Mason, John Sweeney, both of Dormont; Eileen Lang of Sharpsburg; James V. Corella, New Castle; Mrs. C. J. Greiser, Bellevue; J. Voss of West View; and from McKees Rocks are Mildred Sonnett and Rose L. Aldeccka.

Staying at the Beachmore cottages for two weeks are Mrs. David Watkins and daughter, Suzanne; Mrs. Paul Angelo and daughter, Denise, and Jean Wenzel.

Bus Service Between Resort, Ashtabula Begun

A bus service between Ashtabula and Geneva-on-the-Lake was expected to begin operations over the weekend under a temporary permit granted the operators by the State Utility Commission following a hearing in Columbus June 27.

The service was inaugurated by Clarence and Charles Brown, residents of the resort.

The bus is running on an hourly schedule from 6:30 to 9:30 a. m. and from 9:30 to 4:30 p. m. the bus line is on a two-hour schedule. It reverts back to an hourly service from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m. and then runs on a two-hour schedule from 7:30 p. m. until 2:30 a. m.

"We are operating under the temporary permit until our franchise is granted and then we would like to apply for a bus service to Geneva and up into Madison," Brown said.

Quite a delegation was present at the hearing in Columbus June 27. The Ashtabula Airport under management of Robert Burns furnished a plane piloted by Harry Whitney to fly the two brothers, accompanied by Charles Redmond, and Alfred Soltz of the Geneva Park Land company to Columbus.

Mayor Present

Mayor Murray Cook represented the Geneva-on-the-Lake council and John Engel represented the Ashtabula council at the hearing. Also representing them were Attorneys Ward C. Cross, William N. Shane, and Harold E. Foster. William Burgett, clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, and Castle Smith, secretary of the Ashtabula Chamber of Commerce, also were present at the meeting.

"This service will mean a great deal to this resort," Mayor Cook commented, "and I'm confident that the summer residents will give it their patronage."

Brown (Clarence) lives with his wife and children, Jimmy and Barry, in their lake home opposite Meyers road. He is manager of the Ashtabula Housing corporation. His brother, Charles, will be with them for the summer.

Carpenter Food Market Changes Geneva Location

Emir A. Carpenter who has operated Carpenter's grocery opposite Shea's theater for the last 13 years in Geneva has changed locations to the attractive colonial building at the corner of Austin road and East Main street.

Carpenter says he is particularly pleased with his new location because it affords his customers plenty of parking space, something which he could not offer them in his old location.

"While we are putting in self-service for our customers, we still plan to take care of their personal needs by being available to help them find just what they want," he said.

On the Fourth of July twenty years ago Carpenter came to Geneva with his family from Ashtabula. He has a wife, Catherine, and a son, E. Carlyle Carpenter, who recently returned to Geneva from a three weeks' trip to California. He is associated with the Francis H. Leggett company in New York. Carpenter also has two grandchildren.

Hayes Gets House Trailer Franchise

W. R. Hayes has been granted the franchise for the Palace House trailer for this territory, it was announced this week. He has placed an order for three of the trailers and they will be on display at the resort soon. One was displayed earlier in the season across from Eagle Cliff.

Hayes is one of the original concessionaires here. He lives with his wife and son, Robert, on the North Ridge East, but in the summer time you'll find him on the job in Snell's Midway. He's been at the resort for the past 10 years.

Bill Regner Off To Culver; Many Guests At Court

Crest Court is really buzzing these days with vacationists, many of whom have come to the resort for years. And the Regner household has been all taken up with getting their son, William J. Regner, off to the Culver Woodcraft camp, conducted by Culver Military Academy at Culver, Ind.

Bill went to camp with Terry Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Warren of Ashtabula. The boys will return home the latter part of August.

Sorority Group

The Trix club of Cleveland are vacationing at Crest Court. They include Mary Jane Donalfo, Mary Jane Kemmerling, Jean Dulka, Helen DeVall, Virginia Skuly, Mary Ann Driscoll, Sylvia Anjesky, Jeanne Fitbell, Jean Fisher, and Dianne Livingston. Helen Kovatch is chaperone of the group.

In the new Crest Court cottage, "Maxie," is Mrs. Walter West and son, Frankie, of Youngstown, who will stay for the season. Evelyn Probola and Betty Jane McKeon are in the "Gracie" with Genevieve Herman as a guest since last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ritzel (former Ruth Klein) and party are guests at the Ray-Bern. Mrs. Ritzel has been coming to the resort for the last 18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson of Monessen, Pa. are in the Squeeze-In cottage; Mrs. Henry Adams and son, Bob Adams, of the Hotel Ashtabula, are season guests. Dolly Ipe and party of Youngstown are staying in the "Blondie" cottage.

The following gals from East Cleveland are in the Janey cottage: Patricia Moran, Elayne Kirk, Pat Kelly, Libby Byrne, Dolores Hurst, Pinky Moran, and Pat Carlozzi.

Staying at the Cuffy are three girls from Detroit, Mich. They are Verne Sweeney, Betty Daniels, and Mary Pendrak.

Shopping With Suzette

There are numerous things to be said about Lake Erie: like the thrill of swimming, speed boat riding, or lying on the beach with the soft sound of the waves slapping against the sand, or perhaps being one who enjoys just sitting on a porch overlooking the lake. You can watch the constant parade of bathing beauties and see at a distance a lake freighter on its way to one of the distant ports of the Great Lakes.

There's one thing certain, the fresh lake air has a way of stimulating your appetite. You'll find it while you're vacationing. And since most of us are, in a sense, connoisseurs of food, here's a "top" eating place in the area where you can get a meal worth writing home about . . .

Start with STEGNER'S HOMESTEAD. Suzette chimed in to believe me, Suzette gets to the places where there's good food. "It's only three minutes from the resort—on the way to the lake and you can get wonderful chicken dinners served in style—and say, if you're up early in the mornings try some pancakes. Wilma Gildow Fontaine who is a cook as her own special recipe is so good that she's thinking of getting a patent!"

Then, of course, there's Geneva. "I hope," says Suzette, "I'm planning to stay at the lake for at least two weeks before it's going to take you that long to get around to all these fine places to eat."

Suzette pointed out that the NEW WAY INN has reopened its dining room to the public and is assured of getting a fine meal here . . .

TURNER'S RESTAURANT, perhaps is one of the most widely known and has been long famous for their fine food and excellent pastries . . . the new ONDERCIN'S DRUG STORE on the southeast corner of Main and Broadway is serving plate luncheons that are really very, very good . . . and another place where you can get a good staple lunch or dinner is at the VILLAGE GRILL in Geneva. You'll simply have to go in and see what they mean when they say, "Our Specials Are Our Specialty!"

"I'm not going to say a thing about the GLENN-ULLAN or the COLONIAL RESTAURANT," Suzette teased, "because you can read all about these two new eating places on the front page; but, you'll be sorry if you miss eating at either one of them!"

Then, too, on Route 20 going into Ashtabula and just on the outside of the Geneva village limits is the TARRYMORE INN which has proven to be quite popular with the summer guests. They have full course dinners reasonably priced and the cooking there is excellent.

"After the theater, or any time for that matter, because who is ever too full to appreciate chicken-in-the-basket," Suzette said enthusiastically, "go to the TOM THUMB DRIVE-IN and try this specialty, or try a steak sandwich, a cheeseburger, or hamburger—

"Oh," Suzette said rubbing her tummy, "don't miss a ham sandwich at THE ROSELAWN. They have a special relish that they put over the top—pickles and a lot of stuff ground up—that tastes heavenly."

"And," Suzette said while stirring up the bicarbonate of soda, "there are those luscious mushroomburgers you can get at THE CHATTERBOX or those short order specialties that are so good!"

"When I think of THE OLD TAVERN at Unionville, I can't help drooling," says Suzette. "It's one of those charming old places with quite a past, historically speaking, that is, where you simply can't eat the food they put in front of you and yet you just do not want to give up and leave it—it's so good!"

"Now," says Suzette, "let's zoom back to the lake and have some of those delicious waffles at COOK'S WAFFLE SHOP . . . or grab one of those thick milkshakes and a sandwich at HARPER'S DINER . . . or one of those tender, roasted 'dogs' over charcoal at SHUPP'S DOG STAND . . . or sit down in the open and eat where you can

Keeping Abreast Of The Times

We've been doing some thinking about the early days of the resort's history when room and board were to be had for the modest sum of five dollars a week.

Today, vacationers seem to think nothing of spending in the neighborhood of $75 a week for lodging and this does not cover their board.

BUT, how many changes have been made since the so-called "good old days?"

Cottages at the resort are constantly being improved. Refrigerators are replacing worn out old ice boxes; gradually, new apartment size gas and electric stoves are replacing smelly kerosene and old-fashioned gas ranges; many cottages are equipped with hot and cold water; innerspring mattresses are replacing those oh-so-hard-and-bumpy type mattresses; some provide their guests with radios; others have baby beds and high chairs for those desiring them; and numerous other improvements can be noted in the general appearance of the cottages.

With rising costs of labor and material, it is only natural that cottagers felt it necessary to raise their prices; but with this increase they are, on the whole, making improvements and bettering their establishments.

This is as it should be. In these times it would seem wise to put your business in the best possible shape. When times are not so good, it will be the cottage owner who has made the most improvements and whose attitude has been best in dealing with visitors at the resort who will continue to do good business.

It's the same way with the resorts along Lake Erie on both the Canadian and American sides: The resort that keeps abreast of the times and whose business people maintain a friendly, courteous attitude toward its visitors, will do the business when times are bad.

Maybe you're filled up for the season. It's annoying to answer the question of the tired traveler at the door . . . you don't see how you're going to answer those letters . . . but do it! You'll be repaid in the end!

Yes, it must have been wonderful back in the 1870's and 1880's to spend a week at Geneva-on-the-Lake for only five dollars, but modern plumbing facilities are pretty nice and when you get right down to it, most of us enjoy doing a few things more than just swimming, eating, and sleeping . . . like a game of golf, the theater, the many, many games in the midways, hayrides, bicycling, etc.

For vacationists who would like to attend the church of their choice while staying at Geneva-on-the-Lake, the Geneva churches extend their whole-hearted welcome.

Pro Trims Korabek; Mrs. King Plays Here

an Evans, golf pro at the municipal golf course here, has busy this spring getting the course in shape that a certain n, George Korabek, somehow got the impression that our ld be "easy pickin'."

is character, Korabek, somehow got the idea that Evans s just-a "leettle bit" muscle-bound. Imagine it!

to make a long story even Korabek challenged Evans e last Sunday. They play- es and right along with ying was L. J. Morris of Pa. who ended up with a e of 80 which looked good saw what the pro made! who hasn't played a game winter when he played e Miami, Fla., walloped the game and came out (three under par) on the holes and a 35 on the ne holes. Oh, boy! k? Well, Evans beat him and it was the pro's first year. Korabek had a 41 says George as he bust- ple of his favorite clubs e nearest bench, "I'm in my towel as far as with Evans is concerned!" ood Scores Made at the weather is behav- beautiful style, there have of golf "bugs" out and d scores were made last Chet Pasqualone with a Errington, 39, Ray Gil- and Ray Case, 43.
