Electioneering Expected To Begin After Holiday

The political front at Geneva-on-the-Lake has been decidedly quiet during the wind-up of the 1947 season, but after Labor Day candidates seeking village posts in the November 4th elections are expected to begin campaigning in earnest.

At the present, the two candidates for mayor—George Konold and Carl Madsen—are going in for a bit of friendly chit-chat with each saying that he is campaigning for the other and everything is being done on a good fellowship basis.

John Burns, barbecue tycoon, used the famous Coolidge quote, "I do not choose to run!" (for councilman, that is!)

Just to keep the records straight, here's a thumb-nail sketch of each of the men and women whose names will appear on the ballots:

GEORGE KONOLD, part-owner of Snell's Midway here, is completing his second term as councilman. Born in Pittsburgh, he is a member of the Masonic lodge and of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks in Warren, where he at one time was president of the Warren Tool and Forge company.

Konold has been a resident of Palmetto Beach for five years and came to the lake in 1932 to start his arcade in Pera's Skee Ball building. Three years ago he was one of a group of men who purchased Snell's Midway from Mrs. Emaline Snell.

Enthusiastic about the lake, Konold said that if the whole village is prosperous, "my business will be prosperous too!" He is particularly interested in seeing that the village has an adequate fire department and was instrumental in securing the new fire department truck for the village.

Also taking part in his business at the lake are his wife, and son, George, and daughter, Betsey, who may be seen at various times during the days and evenings in the Midway.

CARL G. MADSEN, owner of the Madsen Doughnut shop here, will complete his 10th season at the lake this year. He is originally of Litchfield, Minn. and formerly had doughnut shops in Niles, Ohio and in Pass-a-Grille and St. Petersburg, Fla.

A member of the local Chamber of Commerce, Madsen took over the presidency of Mapleton Beach following the death of A. G. Lehman earlier this year.

He has been particularly interested in the beach erosion problem and was largely responsible for the building of two jetties at Mapleton which have proven successful in the northwesterly winds (only that 3½ ft. rise in the water this year "put one over on us," Madsen explained, adding that more work is expected to be done on them this fall).

His wife, Isobel, is an accomplished artist and formerly taught art in Youngstown. She has also had special art classes at Pass-a-Grille. The Madsens have a son, Carl Jr., better known as "Duff," who will enter Princeton university this fall as a sophomore. They also have a 2½-year-old son, Kris.

Council Candidates

MRS. GLENICE E. COOK, who operates the Chef's Steak House with her husband, Jerry, was born in Geneva. She has had the Steak House for the last seven years and for the 12 years preceding that was with the Stewarts where L'Hommedieu now is located.

She is a member of the Geneva Rebekka Lodge and enjoys bowling as a sport.

Her son, Pat, is working this year in the Steak House as a cook. His engagement to Gladys Orcutt of Geneva was announced earlier this year. Pat was graduated from Geneva high school in May.

Mrs. Cook served on the Harpersfield Board of Education for a year.

LOUIS B. DELLABARCA, originally of Cleveland, is completing his third season at Idle-a-While. Before coming to the lake he was in the restaurant business in Cleveland and is an accountant by profession. He has been active in politics and has held various posts in the American Legion. He is a member of the V. F. W. and of the Forty and Eight. His wife, Louise, is the president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Cleveland.

During the war, Dellabarca was a mess officer in the State Guard and during the first World War, he served three years overseas. He is a graduate of the Spencerian business college of Cleveland.

The Dellabarcas have a nine-year-old daughter, Dolores, and a daughter, Lois, who will be a junior at Ohio State university this fall.

NORMAN HARPER, owner of Harper's Lake Diner and "Inglemere" cottages west of the resort, was born in Unionville. He has spent the last 23 years at Geneva and Geneva-on-the-Lake and during the winter he is associated with the Miller Realty Co.

He is a member of the Kiwanis club and Masonic lodge in Geneva and during the war he was employed by the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co.

Harper's wife and daughters are enthusiastic boosters of Geneva-on-the-Lake. His daughter, June, will re-enter Marietta college this fall; Norma will be a sophomore at Kent, and another daughter is Mrs. Dave Richards, one of the cute gals in the diner!

C. E. JOLLY, president of the local Chamber of Commerce and vice-president of the Lake Erie Vacationland International Conference, was born in Conneautville, Pa. and has played a prominent role in village affairs for a number of years. He was a candidate for mayor two years ago and has served on the Village Council. He is president of the Geneva Kiwanis club and is Supreme Secretary for the Ancient Mystic Order of Samaritans.

Operating Youngstown Manor with his wife, Clara, they completed a new cottage this year and erected the new Chamber of Commerce building.

J. C. LINHART, of Linhart's Lodge, is just completing his first year of business at Geneva-on-the-Lake. Because of ill health, he

Vote "Nay" On Ballot Question

The village council voted 4-2 to place the question of issuing bonds for the purchase of the local Geneva theater for $100,000 before the electors on the November ballot.

A. T. Lomas and John Burns, councilmen, voted negatively when a roll call was taken at Thursday night's special meeting.

Howard Nazor, attorney, represented the corporation owning the theater and also present at the meeting was Hart B. Morrison, stockholder.

It was proposed by the theater interests that the village make the $100,000 theater purchase for use as a convention and community hall which would "greatly augment June and September business at the lake," Nazor pointed out.

The deal would include the property from the north of the theater to the lake front and would include a three-year lease of the theater and projection room on the second floor at $7,500 a year.

John Evans, golf pro, said that the open and handicap golf tournament would be started the week following Labor Day.

gave up his job as assistant personnel manager of the Monongahela Connecting Railroad company, and came to the resort. Recently the doctor has pronounced him well.

Linhart's father was one of the pioneer automobile dealers in Pittsburgh. Linhart was educated at the Central College of Commerce in Pittsburgh and at Detroit Tech.

He operated the second undercover golf range in the United States (first in Cleveland) and sold out that business to return to Pittsburgh and go into the Commercial Investigation Business.

The Linharts have a son, Jimmie, and a daughter, Nancy.

A. T. LOMAS holds somewhat of a record for his service as a village official. He was mayor for eight years preceding the two terms of the present Mayor Murray Cook, and is completing his eighth year as a councilman.

Lomas was born in New Lyme and has been a resident of Geneva-on-the-Lake for the last 42 years, and has seen the resort grow down through the years. He belongs to the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Geneva. Last year he operated the restaurant in the Cleveland Inn and this year opened a new tavern called The Log Cabin Inn on the corner of Presidential and Lake road.

He has a wife, Agnes, a son, David, and a daughter, Nancy.

ALFRED S. OAKLEY, born in Rochester, Pa., is a past exalted ruler of the B. P. O. E. 283 in Rochester and at the time was the youngest man to hold that position in the lodge. He is also a member of the Masonic lodge in Geneva.

Oakley operated a fish and poultry (wholesale and retail) market in Rochester for 15 years and at present owns and operates the candy vending machine business for Geneva and Ashtabula. During the war he worked with the Pennsylvania railroad.

Oakley with his wife operates a grocery store at the east end of the resort and also has a group of cot-

Mayor Murray Cook Predicts Bigger Season Next Year; Many Cottages Remain Open

Business at the resort this year, particularly in the case of eating and amusement places, did not live up to the 1946 boom season, according to a general consensus of opinion expressed by leading businessmen here.

Mayor Murray Cook, who said that his business was 30% off this year, blamed it on the unsettled conditions throughout the country and the high costs of living.

Chamber Banquet Set

The annual dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for September 24 at Turner's restaurant in Geneva. C. E. Jolly, Chamber head, announced today.

The speaker for the occasion will be announced at a later date, Jolly said. He stated that the dinner meeting would be open to all resort residents who cared to attend.

Jolly praised the work done this summer by Bessie McCull and Blanche Nichols, who are on duty at the new Chamber of Commerce building this year.

The Chamber of Commerce will remain open during the first week of September, Jolly said.

"People came up here with a limited amount of money to spend," he pointed out. "From all indications, I believe that the 1948 season will be a much better one because conditions will be more settled then."

Cook said that the Swallows will close within a week and a half following Labor Day and that Jack's "Eat in a Hut" restaurant will remain open several days following the holiday, depending on the demand.

The Pier dance hall will close Labor Day night and the post office and Cocktail Lounge will remain open to Sept. 15, officials said. Penn Lodge and The Curio shop will be open for several days and the Shore shop will remain open.

Realtors Report Sales

Miller Martin

Interest in cottages and lots at Geneva-on-the-Lake and its immediate vicinity has shown no slackening from the busy 1946 season, A. M. Ekern, manager of the Geneva-on-the-Lake office of The Miller Realty Co., said today.

Scores of lots and a large number of cottages have been sold so far in the 1947 season, with four cottages and five lots sold directly through Ekern's efforts to date and other deals pending. These include:

A lot in Golf View allotment, formerly part of Maple Manor, owned by Victor Goettel, sold to John Kunkle of Pittsburgh; two lots in Arcole Estates in Madison township and west of Geneva-on-the-Lake, to Laurence C. and Ruth C. Murray of Pittsburgh; Lot No. 14 in Arcole Estates to Thomas C. Brown and Walter C. and Margaret R. Galvin of Pittsburgh; Lot No. 13 in Arcole Estates to R. E. and Lucille Billman of Bedford, Ohio.

Cottage sales include the transfer of the Bluebell cottage on Geneva Drive, Palmetto Beach Allotment, from Carl Godhard of Cleveland.

tages. They have a son, Jack, and a daughter, Jane.

L. A. PAUL, who is filling the vacancy on the council created by the resignation of Walter Banig, Jr. earlier this year, has been coming to the lake for the last 25 years.

Born in Johnstown, Pa., he is a graduate of Grove City college and was in charge of commercial sales for Frigidaire in Pittsburgh, Sharon, Pa. and in Cleveland. He is at present in business for himself in refrigeration and store equipment. He is a 32nd degree Mason.

He has a wife and five children, Charles, John, Marion, Betty and James.

E. R. ROSE, of Alta Vista, was born in Lancashire, England and came to America with his parents "In general, the rental season at Geneva-on-the-Lake this year has been very good," Mrs. Ethel White, office manager for the A. B. Martin's Sons, commented this week.

"People are beginning to look more for an honest dollar's worth in both renting and buying at the lake and there is a trend back to normalcy," she observed.

The real estate agent said that many deals were being completed during these last several weeks of the season and reported the following sales in the Indian-Creek-Myers road section.

Howard Hicook and R. G. Arvidson of Ashtabula have purchased the 5½-acre tract of land adjoining the property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lock.

Mrs. Naomi Smith, sister of J. C. Linhart of Linhart Lodge, has bought a tract south of the Arvidson-Hicook property and on the east side of Myers road, a 10-acre tract has been sold to Tobias Sepac of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. White said that there are only two or three tracts of land when he was a little over a year old. He retired last December 31 from his position of employment director for Republic Steel in Youngstown and he and his wife will make their permanent home at the lake. Rose was employed by the Steel company since 1901.

His wife has been here during the summers for 13 years, 10 of which were spent at Lakeside Lodge. Rose belongs to the Masonic lodge in Youngstown. They have two children, John R. Rose of Newark, N. J. and Mrs. Nell R. Summers, of Youngstown.

ARTHUR TAYLOR was born in Leetonia, Ohio and has been up here for the last 12 years in the photographic business. He started out with the late Walter Rawdon in the Picture Shop and following his death, he started his own Photo shop in one of the Pera buildings.

Interested in the lake, Taylor is completing his first term on the council. He served as a Democratic committeeman for the lake, and has always been interested in politics.

With him in his photographic business is his wife, Evelyn. He has two sons, Martin and Jackie, and a daughter, Kitt.

MARTHA PERA WOODWARD, daughter of E. M. Pera, large property owner here, was born in Cleveland but came to the resort to live when she was four years old.

She was graduated from Miami university where she studied pre-law and later studied abroad in France and Switzerland.

Mrs. Woodward is fond of reading and as for a hobby, "Well, I guess it's work," she laughed. She has grown up with the resort business and has proven to be a capable business woman. She has traveled extensively and is interested in seeing the resort progress. Her husband, Don, is completing his first term on the council.

School Board Candidates

KATHERINE M. DAVIS, of Shoreland, was born in Bedford and has been a resident at the Lake for the last 10 years. She was formerly purchasing agent at Halle Bros. in Cleveland and is a graduate of Beaver college in Philadelphia. She is at present serving on the school board. She has a daughter, Diane.

CLARA SPENCER JOLLY, of Youngstown Manor, has served on the school board for a number of years, and this is her 19th summer at the resort. She is president of the Ladies Social club here and is a member of the Rebekkah lodge in Geneva. Mrs. Jolly is also a member of the Ladies of the Orient, Zuanna branch.

She has two sons, Edward and Bob Bennett, and a daughter, Sally Jean.

ALICE ZIMMERMAN, of Lake Lane cottages, who was named president of the Board of Education earlier this year, was born in Pittsburgh and formerly taught school there. She is a graduate of the Pittsburgh Teachers Training school and attended the University of Pittsburgh.

She has been a resident of the lake 11 years and has served on the school board for four years. She is a member of the Eastern Star and of the P. T. A. in Geneva.

Mrs. Zimmerman has a son, Jock, and a daughter, Laurie.

Her husband, JOHN ZIMMERMAN, will run unopposed as village clerk, a position he has held for 16 years.

Zimmerman was born in Detroit, Mich. and has been a resident at the lake for 31 years. He is a member of the Geneva Masonic lodge and is secretary-treasurer of the local Chamber of Commerce. He has operated the Sohio Filling station here since 1928.

Also running unopposed for the position of treasurer is MRS. M. K. KOERNER.

Mrs. Koerner was born in Pittsburgh and this will be her summer at the lake after 38 years. She is treasurer for the last two half terms and before the lake she had been a secretary for lawyers and institutions.

She has a son, Charles, who is here have enjoyed her sing at various comm- fairs with her husband, is interested in music.

Bogue's Hobby
When Virgil T. Bogue, of the Eugebode cottages, takes his family on trips a certain amount of time is spent in probing around graveyards, looking up records in libraries, and making the acquaintance of other "Bogues" who happen to be living in the towns in which they visit.

This all comes from being a genealogist.

"Genealogy with me is like playing golf with some folks," he laughed. "I enjoy doing it and have made many pleasant contacts from the pursuit of my hobby."

After 34 years of collecting information, Bogue published a book in 1945 on his findings entitled, "Bogue and Allied Families 1475-1945."

He had intended to make a trip to Europe—to Scotland, specifically, where the first family records are located—but was prevented from doing so by the war. Today, he is continuing his correspondence and may in the future publish a supplement to his book.

Interest Aroused

Bogue became interested in genealogy shortly after he left Michigan State university, where he studied to become a landscape architect, to live with his uncle in Batavia, N. Y.

On the shelf in his room was an old fashioned stationery box overflowing with letters. He recognized the handwriting of his father on one and asked his uncle if he might have it. His uncle gave him the entire box of letters and along with it gave him a little genealogy which carried the Bogue family down to the Revolution. He got to wondering what happened to the other brothers—there were seven of them—and in his travels as landscape architect he began to look up family records.

His book takes in the continental U. S. A., Canada, and Mexico and if anyone of that family can identify his grandfather, Bogue can trace his ancestors back.

"There was one branch of the family that were Quakers," Bogue shook his head. "Information was very meager because of their great modesty. In fact, some of the Bogues were expelled because they lacked 'plainness'. Perhaps they had too many buttons on their suit, or perhaps they attended a dance, or horse race—all excellent reasons for being expelled."

Bogue has many interesting stories to tell of his discoveries and experiences while working on his family genealogy. So, if there's a Bogue in your family, you can find out just where he fits into the scheme of things by contacting this enthusiastic genealogist!

Sliding In To Home Plate

Today's BEACHCOMBER marks the twelfth and final issue for 1947, but the season at Geneva-on-the-Lake is by no means over!

Cottages have been rented through October and numerous eating places will remain open until the end of the month for those taking advantage of beautiful Lake Erie in September.

We hope that you have enjoyed your vacation at the resort and will come again next year. We again urge you to get in your reservation early to assure you the best possible accommodations for 1948. And, if you can make it, spend a weekend at the lake in September.

September on Lake Erie is a peaceful, lazy sort of a month. The lake turns a deeper blue and becomes as smooth as glass. The days are warm, but at night it's cool. In the crisp early mornings, there is nothing quite as invigorating as a swim and then hours of lying on the beach while the sun climbs higher in the sky.

You'll find that several restful days at the lake in September will clear your thoughts. You'll go back to your job whether it's in the factory or office or home, with a better outlook—a sharper focus—there are no complexities here to bother you. There's just the sun in an autumn sky, a lake of fathomless blue, good food and lodging awaiting you!

This completes our second year of publication. Again we wish to express our appreciation to our advertisers, village officials, and residents who have made the publishing of this paper possible.

Certainly there has been much progress made toward the bettering of the resort again this year. From all indications this is the last of the "war boom" years. Things are gradually getting back to normal up here and it would seem that Geneva-on-the-Lake is wisely going back to pre-war days when a man and wife could bring their family here for a vacation without making a major dent in their bank account.

The policy of this paper, as it was from the beginning, is to promote Geneva-on-the-Lake as the finest summer resort along Lake Erie and we intend to keep right on along those same lines again next summer . . . m-m-mm, this gorgeous September weather!

Jubbs Build Another Cottage At Palm

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Jubbs, of Cleveland, who operate the Jubbs cottages during the summer season at Palmetto Beach, have broken ground for another cottage, it was learned this week.

The cottage will be named the "Margie Bell."

The Jubbs came here five years ago and purchased the Lillian Hyde property on Lake and Geneva drives. They also purchased the Warren cottage. Two years ago they sold the Warren cottages and the same day chased the Ada Sutton Lake drive.

They remodeled this cottage and renamed it the Haystack.

The Jubbs are enjoying their new cottage at Palmetto Beach and guests here from many

Mr. and Mrs. Bobb Kansas City, Kans. were to arrive on the twenty

Novotnys Buy Shupp Cottage

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shupp have sold their cottage on Lake Grove avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Novotny of Pittsburgh and Orlando, Fla., it was learned here this week.

The cottage formerly belonged to the William Heasleys and is located next to Novotny's "Marlene" cottage.

The Shupps are planning to move into their "K" cottage on Warner drive following its remodeling after Labor Day.

Shortly after October 1 the Shupps will leave for Florida where they will spend the winter. Their son, Roy, will leave September 20 for Deland, Fla. where he will enter Stetson university for his sophomore year.

Their daughter, Janet, will begin her junior year at Florida State university in Tallahassee, Fla., this year, having transferred there from Southern college at Lakeland.
